FOREWORD

The Lingnan University Fong Sum Wood Library that occupies four floors in the Patrick Lee Woon Keung Academic Building was named after the late benefactor Mr. Fong Sum Wood in 1998. Since its beginning in 1968, the Library has grown to hold more than 545,000 volumes of books, bound journals and audio-visual materials. In addition to print books, the Library also has a large e-book collection of more than 1,303,000 items. The core collection covers various areas of liberal arts curriculum, including arts and humanities, social sciences, and business studies. The Library currently subscribes to 1,044 print journals and approximately 81,500 online serials, as well as 317 databases. Most of the databases and electronic resources are available both on and off-campus. The Chiang Chen Information Commons (IC) in the Library provides the Lingnan community with a one-stop service for reference, information technology and multimedia services support. The Library provides 600+ seats, 170+ public PCs, 13 individual and group study rooms, and 5 faculty & postgraduate study rooms, all with access to the Internet and campus network via wired and wireless connections.

The Lee Hak Kan Multimedia and Language Learning Centre (MLLC), located on the 2/F in the North Wing of the Library, has more than 188,000 multimedia resources. The MLLC aims to encourage students to improve their language proficiency through independent study. The Library serves the Lingnan community as the cultural centre of the campus, offering boundless opportunities for cultural enrichment and knowledge discovery. Seminars and workshops are organized regularly in the MLLC’s mini-theatre.

The Lingnan University Archives, located on the 2/F of the South Wing of the Library, preserves and showcases the University’s history. The Library has long been the hub of academic activities in Lingnan. We strive to provide excellent services for accessing knowledge on campus and we look forward to meeting you at the Library.
